

Curriculum Map	Subject	English	Year	11
----------------	---------	---------	------	----

Unit	Summary	Skills	Assessment	British Values and SMSC	Career links	Cross-curricular links
Macbeth	Study of Macbeth with a key focus on characters, themes and key quotations from the novella.	Reading Skills 1-11 from essential skills document Writing skills from the essential skills document Reading and understanding of 19c language and vocabulary Essay writing	Literature Essay (SUM)	Through detailed and supportive methods of assessment and feedback, alongside actively encouraging self and peer assessment, some of the responsibility for progress is put into the hands of the pupils.	Digital copywriter Editorial assistant	English benefits all subjects through improving understanding and comprehension of new information. English benefits written work undertaken in all subject areas through improving communication and the articulation of information and concepts.
Language paper 1 and 2	Reading and understanding a range of selected texts. Fiction reading and writing focus.	Reading Skills 1-11 from essential skills document	Paper 1 and 2 Q1-4	Short stories and plays are selected which encourage pupils to empathise with the feelings and experiences of others to help develop their understanding of other people's attitudes, ideas and behaviour.	English as a foreign language teacher	English benefits all subjects through improving understanding and comprehension of new information. English benefits written work undertaken in all subject areas through improving communication and the articulation of information and concepts.
Unseen and Anthology Poetry	Students undertake an in-depth study of all poems from the Power and Conflict Anthology.	Reading Skills 1-11 from essential skills document Essay Writing	Paper 2 in class mock (SUM) 1-2 questions per 6 lesson window Transactional Writing Q5 (SUM)	Students study poems which consider the theme of personal, worldwide and community-based conflicts and are asked to consider their own understanding of the issues raised.	Lexicographer Magazine journalist	English benefits all subjects through improving understanding and comprehension of new information. English benefits written work undertaken in all subject areas through improving communication and the articulation of information and concepts.

An Inspector Calls	Students dive into the play text An Inspector Calls and learn about representation of characters as well as play craft and staging.	Reading Skills 1-11 from essential skills document Essay Writing	Reading assessment (SUM)	Short stories and plays are selected which encourage pupils to empathise with the feelings and experiences of others to help develop their understanding of other people's attitudes, ideas and behaviour.	Newspaper journalist Private tutor	English benefits all subjects through improving understanding and comprehension of new information. English benefits written work undertaken in all subject areas through improving communication and the articulation of information and concepts.
Revision of all topics of study	Students will recap each area of study of literature and language to highlight any final misconceptions or areas for development.	All skills on the essential skills document	Numerous assessments across each area of study.	Participation, creativity, reflection and independence are encouraged in all English lessons. Pupils are provided with opportunities to read texts that portray issues and events relating to contemporary life or past experience in interesting and challenging ways.	Publishing copy-editor/proofreader	English benefits all subjects through improving understanding and comprehension of new information. English benefits written work undertaken in all subject areas through improving communication and the articulation of information and concepts.
Class specific revision	Staff identify key areas of focus for each class and student. Schemes and lessons are designed accordingly depending on the class and student needs.	All skills on the essential skills document	Numerous assessments across each area of study.	Through detailed and supportive methods of assessment and feedback, alongside actively encouraging self and peer assessment, some of the responsibility for progress is put into the hands of the pupils.	Secondary school teacher Web content manager Writer	English benefits all subjects through improving understanding and comprehension of new information. English benefits written work undertaken in all subject areas through improving communication and the articulation of information and concepts.